

Types of Financial Aid:

- Assistantships: Awarded to graduate students only, such as research assistants.
- Employment: Campus jobs for students (Federal Work Study, etc.).
- Fellowships: Grants to do specific project or research. Usually for graduate students.
- Grants: Grants do not have to be paid back. They are usually based on financial need and are usually for undergraduate students.
- Loans: Money you receive to go to school that has to be paid back, and sometimes with interest.
- Programs: There are various levels of financial aid available that students can qualify for. Below are resources and links to connect our students with funding.
